SCHOOL NEXT TUESDAY

Store away the fishing poles, kids, and the swim suits and picnic baskets, and get out the pencils and thinking caps, because next Tuesday, whether you like it or not, you will start making the daily trek to school.

For what is said to be the first time in history, the schools in the township are all opening on the same day, Tuesday, September 10.

With population growth taking tremendous strides forward, the enrollment in all the schools will undoubtedly show a large increase over former years.

DON O' WAR AGAIN CLAIMS FIRST PLACES

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Econome returned to Niles from Seattle last week, immensely cheered by the performance of their now-famous horse, Don 'o War, who had the unusual distinction of coming home the winner in two separate races in the northern city.

Don o' War was the winner, you may recall, at a race over at Bay Meadows last spring. Now he has covered himself with further glory at the Seattle track, Longacres.

The Econome, who spent a month in Seattle, accompanied by Mrs. Nadine Gomes, pronounced their trip a huge success, not only because of the successful performance of their chestnut gelding, but because they saw some interesting sights during their stay in the northwest.

Don o' War, with his trainer, George Whitley, will return shortly to be stalled at Bay Meadows, awaiting the opening of the fall season on October 19.

In his winning races in the north, he won one by half a length and the other by two lengths. Good going, Don! We'll look for more at Bay Meadows.

VISITORS ATTEND MEETING OF ST. JUDE INSTITUTE

St. Jude Institute held their monthly social meeting, conducted by First Vice-President Dorothy Misener in the absence of President Irene Harvey, who was away on vacation.

The institute was visited by the new Institute deputy, Irene Armstrong, and some of her sister members of the Livermore Institute. Another visitor was Father Rinault.

After the business meeting, refreshments were served by Mae Avila, committee chairman; Mary Borge, Lorraine and Angie Bettencourt.

NILES SCHOOL EXPECTS RECORD ATTENDANCE

In accordance with the usual procedure, the Niles grammar school will convene for only half a day when school resumes for the fall term next Tuesday.

Principal E. D. Bristow announced that the school cafeteria will be open for business starting Wednesday, September 11.

Mr. Bristow is anticipating a bumper crop of students this year, as indicated by the large number of pre-school children who will enroll.

COMMANDER SHINN HOME NEXT WEEK

Just returned from Silver Lake in Amador county are Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shinn and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Shinn Jr. Although the weather was a little colder than they would have liked, they had a lot of fun with young Mr. Shinn's sailboat.

Now the whole Shinn clan is looking forward to the arrival next week of Commander Allen Shinn and his wife and two boys from Coronado. Mrs. Shinn and the boys will remain here while Commander Shinn will depart soon for Norfork, Va., where he will be stationed.

Another member of the Shinn family, Mrs. Sherman Leonard of Los Altos, is visiting here while her husband is superintending the peach pack at Shuckl Cannery in Niles.

RETURNS FROM HOSPITAL

Mrs. Sequiera has returned to her home after an appendicitis operation at an Alameda hospital. Her daughter, Alice Enos, is taking care of her.

SOFTBALL SERIES MAY END TODAY

Two of the five-game series which is being played to decide who will rule the softball roost of Washington Township have already been played and both have been victories for the Native Sons over Kleine's.

If the Sons win again this evening they automatically cop the title.

The scores of the games already played, Friday of last week and Wednesday of this week, were 3 to 2 and 5 to 2.

According to the crowds that have been turning out to watch the championship games, the brand of softball they've been watching is second to none.

SCHOOL CAFETERIA WILL SERVE ON OPENING DAY

Centerville Elementary School cafeteria will serve lunches on the opening day of school, Tuesday, September 10.

Operation of the cafeteria is made possible through the cooperation of the Centerville P.T.A. and the Centerville Board of Trustees.

NO PETRILLO HERE!

If somebody is a better man than you are, and takes your job away from you, what do you do about it?

Well, you get mad, of course. Then you probably report the whole procedure to a union, and let the union do what it can.

But in Niles—in this instance, in the boot-black circles of Niles—things are settled in a more drastic and much more effective manner.

This week a certain little boot-black boy lost his job in a local barber shop because he was getting as independent as Petrillo. Another boy got his job.

The first boy got mad. He wasn't going to lose his job without a fight. He spotted his successor. He let fly a wicked right. Then a left. Then another right.

"Take my job away from me, willya?" he yelled, still swinging.

Then, after one more good jab at boy number two, he nonchalantly walked off . . . feeling a hundred per cent better. It was okay to lose a job. A guy could always get another one. But, gee, a guy couldn't just give up a job without a fight, could he?

MRS. OLACI NO LONGER IS CAFETERIA HEAD

A farewell party, attended by 24 of her friends, was given last Tuesday by Mrs. R. A. Griffin of Irvington for Mrs. Bessie Olaci, also of Irvington.

Mrs. Olaci, who has been the manager of the Irvington cafeteria for several years, left the following day for Belden, on the Feather River, where she has taken a position as manager of the resort's dining room.

Those who attended the party expressed their regret at her leaving by presenting her with a leather week-end case and a leather jewel case. The three organizations who contributed to the gifts were the Irvington P.T.A., the Student Body and the faculty.

Mrs. Merrill Belding has been named head of the Irvington school cafeteria, replacing Mrs. Olaci. Assisting her will be Mrs. Filbert Bettencourt.

SUNDAY SCHOOL RESUMED AT NILES CHURCH

Dr. Burton M. Palmer, retired minister of Woodside, will again this Sunday conduct the 11 a.m. services at the Niles Congregational Church as the supply minister.

This Sunday also, Sunday school will be resumed, with Mrs. Wilma Duffie as superintendent. All young people of the community are invited to attend.

Dr. Palmer has chosen as his topic, "Life is a Crossword Puzzle."

SUIT IS FILED AGAINST DECOTO FIRM BY OPA

OPA charges of price violations have been filed against the New Colma Mill and Lumber Company in Decoto this week through the Federal Court in San Francisco.

The charges, first of forty being prepared by the OPA, constitute a $1,000,000 suit.

According to Ralph Golub, regional lunmber enforcement chief, 13,000,000 board feet of lumber, sufficient for 1,200 five-room homes, was diverted from northern California through the midwest and into New England through illegal operations.

Golub said customers paid from $15 to $20 a thousand feet over ceilings. He named 16 firms as having bought overpriced lumber.

FINEST BUILDING OF ITS KIND, SAY BUILDERS

In line with its expansion program, the James Graham Manufacturing Company is spending more than twice its original estimated cost to complete its new building.

Begun last November, the huge new building—which will house not only all the company's business offices but also a large display room, a conference room, an artistically designed lobby and executive offices—is expected to be ready for occupancy by November of this year.

"That's of course providing we run into no snags," said a spokesman for the company.

Containing 11,000 square feet of floor space, the new building which is constructed of steel and re-inforced concrete, will have the latest appointments.

Between fifteen and twenty workmen have been employed steadily at the task of putting up the building which, when completed, will occupy a place high on the growing list of township enterprises.

REPORTS SAY MRS. POND 'SAME'

According to word received from R. L. Pond of Irvington, the condition of Mrs. Pond, who suffered a stroke Tuesday morning and was removed to the San Jose Hospital, is about as "good as can be expected."

The physician attending Mrs. Pond is Doctor E. M. Grimmer of Irvington.

TWO MEN FINED FOR HAVING UNDERSIZED BASS

Twenty-six undersized striped bass in their possession proved expensive to two Isleton Filipions, A. Antasoda and Richard Ramos. They were apprehended on the banks of the Sacramento River by Wardens Durney and Hughes and taken before Judge Milo Dye of Walnut Creek. "One hundred dollars, each, or 50 days in the county jail for each of you," said the J.P. Note: The fines were paid.

GETTING MARRIED? HURRY AND BEAT THE PRICE BOOST

The cost of getting married in the state of California may go up at least three dollars (3).

No hand at deterring young couples from "taking the step," Supervisor Chester Stanley today warned prospective bridal couples they will have to hoist their budgets if a proposition placed before the recent conference of County Supervisors of the state becomes a law.

Raising of the two-dollar marriage license fee to five dollars was requested, Stanley said, because the costs of handling details of a license in offices of the county clerk and county recorder exceeds the amount received at the present time.

The matter is being referred to the State Legislature for action.

THIEVES SACK JOLLY PHARMACY

(Editor's Note: The following news was given to The Register on Wednesday of this week.) Two men, whose names have not yet been disclosed, are being held by the sheriff's office in Oakland in connection with the Jolly Pharmacy robbery in Newark last Thursday night.

One of the men was said to have been employed in Newark, the other lived in San Francisco. Both are known to have been in Newark vicinity on the night of the robbery.

Conclusive evidence has not been found so far, however, and charges are pending.

Thieves who jimmied a rear door and then forced open the safe of the Jolly Pharmacy in Newark Thursday night, got away with close to $1,900 in cash and checks.

It is the concurring belief of the store's owner, Richard Jolly, and the police investigating the case, that the theft was committed by someone with more than just a superficial knowledge of the store's policy of having that much money on hand each Friday to cash pay checks from the James Graham Company.

It is believed that the thieves who actually did the work of breaking into the store and opening the safe, are not the same ones responsible for so many of the petty thefts being committed in the township of late.

Nothing else was touched in the store, and so far no tangible leads have been turned up indicating who the thieves may be.

NILES MAN HITS WIFE; IS JAILED

Through use of an interpreter, whom it later turned out he really didn't need at all, Jose Ramirez, Niles, finally admitted to Judge Allen Norris Friday that he did hit his 14-year-old wife a couple of times—but not until after they had been married one whole week.

Due to the fact that his honor thought the record stood in need of some improvement, Ramirez was sentenced to 10 days in the Alameda county jail to think it over.

At the time of his promotion he held the position of area salesman at Hayward. He, his wife, and sons, live in Alvarado, where he has resided for the past several years.

Pashote, who hails from Decoto, set a speed of 105 miles per hour. Fred Costa of the Mercury Radio and Hobby Shop, Decoto, ran his car at a speed of 102 miles per hour.

McCoy, originator and builder of the McCoy car which the local boys and McCoy himself used, took first place with a speed of 114 miles per hour. Lamb of Los Angeles was second with 113; and White, also of the southern city, placed third with 108. Torrey of Oakland copped fourth and Allshire fifth.

This meet is held yearly on Labor Day and is known as the Percy Mathews Memorial Model Race Car Meet. It is sponsored by the San Leandro Model Race Car Association and International Race Car Association.

IRVINGTON PICNIC IS HUGE SUCCESS

The Irvington Youth Center picnic, held at Alum Rock Park last Saturday, proved to be an outstanding success.

Over 60 young people and adults attended the affair, which lasted from ten in the morning to ten at night. The day was spent in swimming, hiking, and just having a good time generally.

The "eats" consisted of "hot dogs," beans (a la Scamman,) spaghetti (a la Griffin), salad, watermelon and cokes.

Those who chaperoned the picnic were Mr. and Mrs. George Scamman, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Griffin, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Robertson and Mrs. Leslie Hiller.

Thinking Things Over . . .

By VIVIAN BATMAN

I have an ax to grind. I'll grind it right out publicly—and let the chips fall where they may.

Of all the priggishness, of all the small town snobbishness, the most laughable and at the same time most pitable is that which prompts anyone to wrap himself in a cloak of aloofness and say smugly, "Oh, no, we NEVER want our names in the paper."

Is there anyone in this township who is so important, so far above his fellow men that his name should never appear in public print? If there is any such person, I have not heard of him.

Yet when I asked a woman in this township for a story about a member of her family, that's the answer I received: "Oh, we NEVER want our name in the paper."

I had the strange feeling that this woman must have a skeleton in her closet, that she was trying to hide something. And at the same time I was also just plain mad! And why? Because this same woman, when she has one of her pet projects to put over, never hesitates to call me and ask for all the free publicity she can get! Her voice is silky then, "Oh, please, Mrs. Batman, give us a nice story, will you?"

It is a queer thing, but I have found that those who have the most (I am speaking financially now) are not the snobs. A woman who is related to our biggest industry in the township phones ME—to tell me about an occasional social event in her family. I don't have to phone her. Another woman, who has an enviable share of worldly possessions, writes in regularly when anything is going on in her family that can be used in the social columns.

For those people, and the many, many others like them, I will willingly give any reasonable amount of publicity for anything they may have. (And you never know when you'll need publicity for something!) But for the other kind—and thank heavens their numbers are few—well, what do you think?

HINTS FOR HOMEMAKERS

VARIETY IN LUNCHBOXES

By the HOMEMAKING SPECIALISTS of the General Electric Consumers Institute

Whether you're whipping up a boxed lunch for the next all-day session of the mothers' club or sending your offspring to school with lunch in hand, a little variety in the lunch box goes a long way toward making it more appetizing and enjoyable.

It need not be a fancy lunch that you make up the night before or whip together the same morning, but it should be changed occasionally. Get away from the old peanut butter and jelly sandwich. If you want peanut butter and you want sandwiches—fine. But do combine the peanut butter with something new and different, as suggested below.

These ideas from the G-E Consumers Institute ought to perk up your box lunches.

Versatile Thermos

You need not buy an expensive thermos—any small but good one is an excellent addition to your away-from-home luncheon. On cold days fill it with delicious hot soup, steaming coffee or hot chocolate. Humid days are relieved by icy cold milk or any number of fruit juice beverages.

Luncheon Additions

Always try to include some fruit in a lunch box. A banana, orange, pear, etc., is not only nutritious, but quenches your thirst and makes a fine dessert.

Crisp celery and carrot strips, wrapped in waxed paper, add vitamins and variety.

Here's where leftovers can be used. Suppose you have some salad left over from supper — just enough for one person. Or there's one piece of cold chicken left in the pan. Pack salads in waxed containers, fowl or meat in waxed paper—slip them into a corner of the lunch box.

Essentials

Be sure to include any implements which may be necessary for eating the soup, or salad, for cutting the orange. Paper forks and spoons are safe, sanitary and may be discarded after the meal. However, by preparing as much as possible in advance, you avoid the necessity for a knife, which may cause cut fingers.

Heavily iced cakes taste yummy, but NOT after all the frosting has stuck to the waxed paper. So send plain cake or cookies.

Here are some suggestions for sandwich fillings—no doubt many will become your favorites or your own specialties.

Meat Fillings

1. MEAT AND VEGETABLE: Chop cold roast meat fine; add finely chopped celery, chopped olives, and mix with cooked salad dressing.
2. LIVER AND ONION: Mince cooked chicken, calves or beef liver finely. Add minced onion, lemon juice, salt and pepper and enough mayonnaise to moisten.
3. CORNED BEEF: Mix cooked, chopped corn beef, with grated Swiss Cheese, chopped sweet pickle, salt, pepper, grated onion, and enough mayonnaise to moisten.
4. LIVERWURST: Mash liverwurst sausage, grated onion, mustard, chopped celery and enough mayonnaise to moisten.

Fish Fillings

1. SARDINE AND EGG: Mince sardines; add chopped hard boiled eggs, and moisten with mayonnaise.
2. FISH SALAD: Flake left-over boiled or baked fish. Add chopped celery, sweet pickle and enough salad dressing to moisten.

Cheese Fillings

1. CREAM CHEESE: Soften cream cheese with a little mayonnaise. Mix with jelly for a sweet sandwich; chopped olives for a tangy sandwich.
2. COTTAGE CHEESE: Mix cottage cheese with chopped walnuts and salad dressing.
3. AMERICAN CHEESE AND FRUIT: Mix chopped celery, apple and grated cheese, salt and pepper. Moisten with cooked salad dressing.

Use Peanut Butter

Always blend peanut butter with milk, butter or other ingredients until it is of spreading consistency. Season with salt. Combine with any of the following:

1. Ground raisins moistened with fruit juice.
2. Chopped sweet pickle or relish.
3. Ground carrots and lemon juice.
4. Cooked chopped bacon and salad dressing.
5. Warm honey.
6. Chopped dates and mayonnaise.

Vegetable Fillings

1. Watercress and cucumber with salad dressing.
2. Chopped carrot and shredded cabbage; chopped pickle and salad dressing.
3. Chopped fresh spinach, hard cooked eggs and salad dressing.
4. Chopped radish, cucumber, seasoning and salad dressing.

A QUART A DAY

"A quart of milk a day, plenty of rest and no worry" is the prescription for keeping vigorous, said Mrs. Theresa Smith, nearly 72 years old, who recently retired from government service, but went back to work—for private industry. Mrs. Smith is a stenographer. The week before she left she topped the other girls' output.

Pickles and relishes that are easy to make

One of the easiest of all canning jobs—and one that will bring just about the most pleasure during the winter months—is to make plenty of pickles and relishes. Here are two old favorites and another that's just a little out of the ordinary.

BREAD AND BUTTER PICKLES

2½ pounds small cucumbers (about 25)
2½ pounds medium-size onions (about 8)
1 quart vinegar
2 cups sugar
2 teaspoons celery seed
2 teaspoons tumeric
1 teaspoon dry mustard
½ cup salt

Wash cucumbers; slice; peel onions and slice. Soak separately overnight in cold water; drain. In large kettle combine remaining ingredients. Bring to boil. Pour over cucumbers and onions; let stand 1 hour; bring to boil. Boil 3 minutes. Pack into hot sterilized jars; seal at once. Makes 6 pints.

TOMATO-FRUIT CHILI

2 pounds peaches (about 6 large)
2 pounds pears (about 6 large)
2 pounds onions (about 6 medium-size)
2 buds garlic
¾ pound green peppers (about 3 large)
8½ pounds tomatoes (about 30 medium-size)
3 cups sugar
1 quart vinegar
1½ tbsps. allspice
1 tbsp. salt

Peel peaches, pears, and onions; chop. Seed green peppers; chop. Scald tomatoes; peel; chop. Mince garlic. In large kettle, combine all ingredients. Cook slowly about 2 hours, or until thick, stirring occasionally. Pour into hot sterilized jars; seal at once. Makes 8 pints.

ICE-WATER PICKLES

2¾ pounds 4-inch cucumbers (about 18)
1½ pounds onions (about 5 medium-size)
1 quart vinegar
1 cup sugar
¼ cup salt
1 tsp. mustard seed

Wash cucumbers; quarter lengthwise; cover with ice water; soak 2 hours. Slice onions; place in jars; pack cucumbers, lengthwise, in jars. Combine remaining ingredients; boil 1 minute. Pour immediately over cucumbers; seal at once. Makes 5 pints.

Put the Blame on——?

On a trip the writer took through the Altamont Pass at the close of the Labor Day week-end, many profanities were heard in the long line of traffic that was moving foot by foot, sometimes inch by inch, along the jammed highway. Most of the profanities were directed against the trucks and commercial vehicles which undoubtedly contributed in no small part to the delay.

After careful deliberation, however, is it fair to utter vituperations against these high way freighters?

Trucks do use our highways a great deal, but truck taxes have not only provided us more funds for better roads than we could have had otherwise, but truck transportation has contributed much to our economic welfare in reducing transportation costs on many of the vital necessities of life and thereby enabling them to be sold at lower prices on the market.

State tax records show that in California trucks and commercial vehicles account for approximately 40 per cent of the TOTAL ANNUAL TAXES collected even though they make up but about 14 per cent of the total traffic on the roads.

So don't start cussing the poor defenseless truck drivers if you get stalled in Sunday traffic. Remember that it is the truck that helps in a large measure to pay for that highway that makes it possible for you to have fun in the resort spots of California.

Back to School

The long, lazy days of vacation are fast slipping away for the younger generation. Soon the clang of the school bell will start their trek back to classrooms and textbooks.

Quite understandably, most youngsters don't relish the return to their studies after months of "freedom," but they soon get back into the swing of things and then school "isn't so bad."

The training of our children was never more important than it is today. On that training will largely depend their capacity as citizens of tomorrow to meet the great issues, both national and international, which they will have to face. It is vital then that they be well educated. Partial or haphazard learning will not be adequate for future years.

But to give children a complete education is not easy for many families. It's a matter of finances, for a good education costs money. Yet, not a few families in moderate circumstances are seeing to it that their youngsters get to college. In many homes a strict household budget is necessary to make this possible, and a certain amount is regularly saved from each pay envelope for this education fund.

But whatever sacrifices are made to give the rising generation adequate schooling will be well repaid in the fact that they'll be better equipped to succeed both as individuals and as a nation.

Education is a great bulwark protecting us against the totalitarian idealogies still rampant in the world. Let us keep that bulwark strong. We need it very much today. We probably will need it even more tomorrow.

MISSION SAN JOSE NEWS

WITH LOIS JUSTUS

The Mission is bidding "Adios" to Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Peterson this week for some time, but are hoping all their plans to return will materialize following a long and much needed vacation. They plan to go to Minneapolis, Minn., for a while to visit Mr. and Mrs. Siems, folks of Mrs. Peterson, driving their car and taking in all the sights along the way and maybe even Cuba, who knows. It is just a vacation to see the good old U.S.A. and take their time about it.

Mrs. Peterson, the former Edna Darrow, wife of the late George Darrow of the Darrow Winery here for many years prior to his death, has lived in the Mission for many years and ran the winery alone for a number of years before she married Mr. Peterson about three years ago. It has been closed for over a year due to labor shortage and the war, but now they have sold it to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Aletto and son, Frank, of Oakland, who own a retail wine company in that city. The new owners will come to the Mission as soon as they can arrange their business in town.

Mr. Peterson is president of the Atlas Tire Company and hopes to return to the Mission and interest the townspeople in a big factory here in our little Mission. He is a civic minded person who would do a lot to make the town and township grow if the people will only make his venture, and a good sound one, come to life by making it co-op and helping out all they can. So folks you have one year to think about a big Atlas Tire Factory in your own town if you are only willing to do your share. He says one thing that has held it up before and that is sewerage. So get with Irvington and put through the sewerage for our town, and next year when he returns we may have a real industry here in the little Mission town founded one hundred and fifty years ago in June.

The Mission firemen were called out on Sunday to quell a grass fire at Linda Vista Park which burned quite a large area back of the park where some thoughtless parker had thrown a cigarette.

Mr. and Mrs. James Young have returned to their home here following a month's vacation in Oregon and Washington visiting relatives and just sight-seeing.

Miss Jean Suddeth has moved to Torrence, a suburb of Los Angeles, where she will attend high school this fall. Her father, James Suddeth, will join her in the near future as soon as he can complete some business arrangements.

Mrs. Anna McGovern, housekeeper at the manse at St. Joseph's Church, is spending a much needed rest and vacation in San Jose with her daughter and in other places in and near San Jose.

Mr. William Allison has had as his guest this past week his sister, Mrs. Mary Louise Gardner of Los Angeles. Due to teaching duties, she was unable to remain longer.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Santos and daughter, Diane, have moved to Burlingame to live after spending nine months in the Mission. Mr. Santos is now employed at the J. E. French sales rooms as foreman.

Mr. and Mrs. Matt Silva and daughter, Marie, are spending a vacation at Half Moon Bay. Margaret and Henry, both employer, are keeping the home fires burning till dad and mom come home.

A near accident occurred at the Linda Vista Park at the Sunday picnic. Billie Souza, son of Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie Souza, local residents, took with cramps while swimming in the pool and was down for two when an onlooker discovered his plight and dived in, clothes and all, and rescued the lad. His folks were notified but in the meantime interested parties brought the boy home.

Rev. Father George Bourque has returned from a couple of months spent in his native Ontario, Canada. He is again back at his duties at the Dominican Convent and as his guest he brought back his sister, Miss Juliette Bourque, who will remain for a time.

Frank Ordillo, who is employed at the Palm Dale Estates, is a busy person these days between work and San Francisco. The object of his visits is he is getting ready to make a trip home to the Philippines to see his mother whom he has not seen for many years and, due to the war, he had heard nothing from her for a very long time, but now he will be going home shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bonner and daughter, Carol Lee, of the Highway Garage, were Monday visitors in San Francisco where they witnessed the Labor Day parade.

Gee! Another lovely white face on a building on our front street. Mr. Ernest Frei, owner of the local shoe repair shop, has given his building a nice coat of paint and there along side of it is the Guadalupe Inn, owned by Herman and Larry Medeiros, which has just undergone a complete overhaul and face lift. The phone office between the U.S. post office and the Mission Bell, received its "make-up" some time ago. Hey, Doc, how about the P.O. and Mission Bell? Make this end of town uniform and very attractive. How about it? Now, now, watch your blood pressure.

What a happy crowd gathered at "Our House" near San Leandro Sunday evening, September 1, to celebrate the 53rd birthday of their aunt and sister, Mrs. Helen Machado, who makes her home here with her sister, Mrs. Rose Telles. Every one, including the youngsters, enjoyed the evening of music by Dave Quinlan and dancing and fried chicken. Her guests were Mrs. Rose Telles, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Andrade and sons, Glenn and Eddie, Mr. and Mrs. Leland Telles and sons of Irvington, Pvt. and Mrs. Mervin Telles and Miss Rose Mary Telles.

Mrs. Elsie Wilcox and daughter, Lois Justus, accompanied by A.M. M. 1c Glenn Bottenberg, motored to Placerville where they spent the holiday with Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Kamp and daughter, Vicki. Bottenberg stopped off at Sacramento where he spent several days with Mr. and Mrs. John Heintz.

Friant Dam is on the San Joaquin River 20 miles north of Fresno.

OUR READERS WRITE . . .

Mrs. Malcolm Cole, incoming president for the Niles P.T.A., comes forth with a letter that shows that she is very much aware of her responsibilities as a president of the organization, and is already taking steps to arouse interest and enthusiasm among the members, new and old alike.

To the Parents of Niles Grammar School Students:

The newly elected Executive Board of Niles P.T.A. is deeply grateful for the confidence expressed by your unanimous vote and assures you that the greatest effort will be made to justify your trust.

As most of you know the exigencies of the past few years took such heavy toll of our once-flourishing P.T.A. that for a time its dissolution seemed unavoidable. At this prospect the outcry from our more articulate citizens was enough to arouse us to a new consciousness of the real need and importance for the continuance of P.T.A. as an integral part of our community organization. The response from the membership, and innumerable pledges of support from parents and friends, were most heartening and promise well for the success of the organization in the coming school year.

For this, the members of the Board are truly thankful, for the success or failure of their efforts depends almost entirely on the support given by the membership. It isn't enough just to pay your membership fee. Your active participation in the meetings is needed. It is planned to keep the parliamentary procedure to the very minimum required, so that the bugbear of formality will not stifle the expression of your opinions.

So we beg of you, individually, to do your share in helping to avoid that dreadful lethargy into which these meetings sometimes sink. Don't save your ideas for the coffee and cake, but express them in meeting. Make known your opinion of matters under discussion. Contest motions if you feel like it. Constitute yourself a committee of hospitality to encourage newcomers to participate. Don't just sit there. Say something!

If, in spite of all this, you are still not disposed to speak, write your suggestions, ideas or opinions to the president or secretary and they will be presented to the membership anonymously if you wish.

In any event, come to the meetings in droves and back up the organization now that you have given it a new lease on life.

Sincerely and hopefully,
JESSIE COLE,
President, Niles P.T.A.

VIOLATIONS OF GAME LAWS MUST STOP

"Violations of our fish and game laws must stop," said Judge L. Missal, of North Sacramento, "and violators will receive stiff penalties when brought before this court." These remarks were directed at Earl Axtell, contractor, of 1115 T street, Sacramento, Glen E. Lattin, contractor, of Bijou (Lake Tahoe), and Lester S. Nagy, resort owner, of Bijou, when arraigned before the justice by Fish and Game Wardens Hughes and Durney. These hunters pleaded guilty to the taking of 14 hen pheasants and to hunting during closed season, and were fined $500 each (total $1,500), were sentenced to 10 days each in the county jail, but this was suspended. However, they were placed on probation for two years and were further admonished—"if you ever break any game laws during the next two years, you will serve those suspended 10 days in jail, and in addition will suffer the penalties prescribed for such subsequent violations" said this conservation-minded Judge Missal.

6206 DEER TAKEN DURING PAST 16 DAYS

"California hunters have taken 6,206 deer during the past 16 days of the season now open," reports Joseph Hunter, chief of the Bureau of Game Conservation, Devision of Fish and Game. The five leading counties are Mendocino, Lake, Sonoma, Los Angeles and Glenn. In 1945, 5,197 deer had been taken by the same date, but some districts had been open for 22 days, while two other areas had been open only for 12 days and 8 days. With about 25 days remaining in the present open season, a new record will probably be made for the total number of deer taken.

FAMILY'S FOOD BILL

The average family in January of this year was spending at the rate of $466.84 annually for food. Of this amount 28.6 per cent went for fruits and vegetables; 21.6 per cent for meat products, and 19.5 per cent was spent for dairy foods, according to the advisory board of the California Dairy Industry.

NILES MAIN STREET IS SCENE OF HOUSEMOVING

Niles townspeople who looked up First street Wednesday morning found their respective view obstructed by the 24x60 foot store building which movers were transporting along the street on its way to the Tony Lucas property northeast of town.

Only small difficulty was offered the movers by overhead wires. A workman perched on the roof of the building, which itself rode easily on dollies, used a stick to keep most of the wires clear, while a PG&E lineman helped out from atop the poles on the south side of the street. The job required only about three hours to complete.

NEWS FROM THE HIGH FLIERS

By DON BATMAN

Not many planes were flown at the Model Plane Club meeting last Sunday, but Butch Mohn flew his P.D.Q. Gordon Kibby flew a model plane called the "Spad." He had a hard time getting it into the air, and when he did the plane flew in toward him and, being unable to back up fast enough to keep the lines tight, that was the end of that model. Ronnie Estudillo got his plane fixed and it flew pretty good. Before I arrived at the field Mr. Sears' "Whizzer" cracked up and the engine mount and front end was damaged. Mr. Sears said the engine wasn't hurt.

Wednesday night I went to the club meeting in Newark at Mr. Sears'. Half of the club members didn't show up.

Now I can explain U-control flying. There are two strong wires from fifty to nearly a hundred feet long. The wires are attached to a "bellcrank" which is shaped like a clothes hanger. Attached to this is a wire nearly the length of the plane. This is attached to another piece of metal called the elevator horn and is attached to the elevator.

The engine is attached to two blocks of hard wood called the motor mounts. The ignition system is a coil, a condenser, two small batteries, and a switch. To start the engine the switch is off and two wires leading to two booster batteries from the engine and the coil. The booster batteries supply the juice for starting the engine. When it starts, the switch is turned on and the batteries are taken away.

Visitors are welcome, but don't get in the way.

"The Senator," a 750-ton river steamer, was one of the largest in the Sacramento River in the early days.

FARM NEWS
AGRICULTURAL EXTENSION SERVICE

CAUTION ON HOME-GROWN HYBRID CORN SEED

If you have had success with hybrid corn, do not save grain of the fine big ears you grew this year for next year's seed. The yield will be smaller if you do. Some farmers have not believed this until they tried it.

This is the theory: All plants in a field of corn planted with hybrid seed are related to each other. The vigor from hybrid corn comes from out-crossing. Reduction in vigor and grain yield is always associated with inbreeding in corn. The seed coming from your field of hybrid corn is definitely inbred because relationship of the parent plants is fully as close as between first cousins.

Repeated tests at experiment stations and by farmers have shown that the average reduction in yield from planting second-generation corn seed of a double cross is about 15 per cent. This reduction can be avoided by buying and planting each year the freshly crossed seed of tested strains of hybrid corn.

It does not pay to use the home-grown corn for seed no matter how fine and well-filled the kernels appear.

DECREASE NOTED IN POULTRY PRODUCTION

California poultrymen produced 24 per cent less poultry in 1946 than in 1945. National production was 18 per cent below a year earlier, according to California Crop and Livestock Reporting Service. The total of 677,166,000 chickens produced in the United States was the smallest number since 1940.

California egg production during last July was only slightly below the same month last year. July production for the nation was eight per cent below that month in 1945.

HYBRID CORN AND FARM PROGRESS

Farmers of Alameda county have shown interest in hybrid corn because of the added vigor and production to be obtained.

Farm Advisor T. O. Morrison says hybrid corn is one of those developments coming out of scientific research that brought real progress to the farm.

Hybrid corn was made possible by research in the field of genetics, he says. Less than 15 years ago, not many people knew about hybrids. They were planted on only one out of every thousand acres of corn.

As soon as word was passed around that the hybrids yield up to a fifth more than open-pollinated types of corn, farmers started to plant it when they could get the seed. The United States Department of Agriculture reports that two out of every three corn acres in this country ore planted to hybrids.

The main thing holding back growers in California from using hybrids is lack of seed. Before hybrid seed can be formed, the best high-yielding parent stock has to be developed. This takes time.

If the increase in the acreage planted to hybrids keeps up practically all the corn planted will be hybrid. The farm advisor says this time is coming and it is not far away.

AS THOUGH . . .

A news item in The Register said that skirts were to be worn long, short and/or medium—take your pick . . . Hadad's store sold men's shirts for 50c, pillow cases (regular 35c) for 25c, sheets for $1, and ladies' pure wool and silk hose for $1 per pair . . . Joe Silveria, 65, uncle to Bert Silveria, Niles barber, was the victim of a hit and run motorist . . . J. E. Kimber was developing a poultry breeding farm near Niles . . . A Marmon truck, driven by Jack Ramos of Decoto, plunged into Niles Canyon . . . Mary Correa, 11 year old daughter of Cecelia Correa of Niles, was struck and injured slightly by a car . . . John Lemon, Centerville realtor, leaped to his death from a water tower on his ranch . . . and E. D. Bristow was secretary of the Niles Chamber of Commerce.

If you do remember then your memory is at least twenty—that's 20, years old, because the events outlined happened in 1926.

The Cost of Gas and Electricity has gone DOWN and DOWN
$1 WORTH OF GAS NOW 27¢
$1 WORTH OF ELECTRICITY NOW 65¢
Like steps down to a Bargain Basement — that's how the price of gas and electricity for home use has gone down.
FIVE TIMES your electric rates have been marked down since 1930 for a total reduction of 35 per cent.
SEVEN TIMES since 1930 the cost of gas has been stepped down for a total reduction of 73 per cent.
Yes, it costs more to produce and distribute gas and electricity today — much more — but there has been no inflationary rise in our rates to the average home customer.
